Expertise

Private Wealth

David Jordine is a director in our Private Wealth team based in the BVI.

David has been engaged in the financial services sector for over 20 years and specialises in trust and corporate services. More recently, David's emphasis has been primarily working with and advising family office clients.

He has held senior trust roles in various financial centres including the Bahamas, the Cayman Islands, and Bermuda. He managed diverse, and on occasion, bespoke structures involving charities, foundations, private trust companies, and private equity funds.

He is an attorney (non-practising) called to the bar in England and Wales and The Bahamas, where his practise focused on real estate, probate, and estate and succession planning matters.
