Expertise

Corporate Services, Company formation, Private Wealth, Trusts services, Trustee and trust administration

Marisa joined Harneys in 2014 and is an associate lawyer in the Cyprus Fiduciary practice. She graduated from Coventry University and completed the Legal Practice Course at the University of Law, Bristol. Her main duties include on-boarding clients, incorporation and annual administration of Cyprus companies and provision of legal support with regards to corporate and trust law issues.

In her current practice, Marisa's expertise range between preparation and filing of incorporation and other forms relating to the Registrar of Companies to the preparation of corporate documents and review of agreements for the purposes of authorisation for execution by the board of directors of a Cyprus Company.

Marisa's recent experience includes assisting bet365, one of the world's leading online gambling operators with over 23 million customers in over 150 countries, with its Cyprus presence and application for a Class B online betting licence in Cyprus.
