Theodoros is co-head of our Fiduciary team in Cyprus. He is also a partner in our associated law firm's Banking and Finance practice. He regularly acts for multilateral financial institutions, international and domestic banks, private equity funds and corporate borrowers in banking and corporate finance matters.

Prior to joining our associated law firm in 2017, Theodoros worked at Norton Rose Fulbright in London, Moscow, Amsterdam (on secondment with ING Bank working on the front desk of its oil and gas desk for Europe and the CIS) and Athens. He has extensive experience working with financial institutions and borrowers on restructuring and work-out arrangements, group refinancing transactions and monitoring problem loans. Theodoros also specialises in project finance and energy, advising international oil and gas companies, governments, national oil companies and lenders on major energy transactions. Theodoros also advises on intellectual property law in Cyprus.

Theodoros is a member of the International Bar Association and the Association of International Petroleum Negotiators.
